

ON restrictions to satellite radio: Innovation and Competition needs to drive the expansion of services to the American Public. Not the protection of old technology. Radio and even TV will continue to be pushed by new technology, such as Community High Speed Wireless networks carrying IP based Telephony, Video, etc. We can't hold up our hands and stop the Train of Progress. To do so only limits the technology leadership of the United States.
Thank You.